OUR JUDGE: LINDA LAUBY

Linda Lauby is a writer, editor, artist, restaurateur, and publisher, who moved from her native Wisconsin to New York City after graduation from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. While writing and teaching graphic design in New York's corporate world, she discovered the Outer Banks and moved to Kitty Hawk in the early 1990s.

She owns Outer Banks Press, a publishing company known for bespoke publications and public art projects such as The Winged Horse Extravaganza, an installation of more than 100 fiberglass horses commemorating the Centennial of Flight. She is currently relaunching a similar project as OBX Wild.

Linda has written and designed several books, and her art exhibits include International ArtExpo at NYC's Jacob Javits Center, plus a solo show inaugurating the University of Virginia's McIntire School of Commerce. Client KeyBank in Cleveland commissioned her to create 300 large-format architectural abstract images for their corporate headquarters.

She's also a founding member of Visionary Artists Group who, with Dare Arts, co-hosted a 2024 art exhibit to give all those whose lives have been impacted by cancer an opportunity to share their experiences through creative expression.

Frank Stick was a well-known illustrator who produced work and cover art for Field and Stream, Outdoor America, Colliers, Sports Afield and The Saturday Evening Post. He studied under Howard Pyle and was a contemporary of N.C. Wyeth. Stick moved to the Outer Banks in 1929 and put his work aside until his later years when he returned to painting. He worked to preserve the Outer Banks coastlands and was instrumental in having miles of Cape Hatteras Seashore designated as the first National Seashore.

His influence on the Outer Banks as a preservationist and artist cemented his lasting legacy as one of the most important figures of the 20th century in Dare County.

Please complete this identification label. If your work is two-dimensional, affix it to the upper left corner on the back of your artwork. If your work is three-dimensional, please attach it to the bottom of the work.
